Students as Agents of Change

empowering students to actively improve the experience for themselves and their peers through a project-based approach.

applying for one or setting up their own project.

What “Students as Change Agents” mean into eTwinning and eTwinning School?

Student must take a leading role

Deliver effective and measurable change

Become part of a community of sharing practice in student-led enhancement

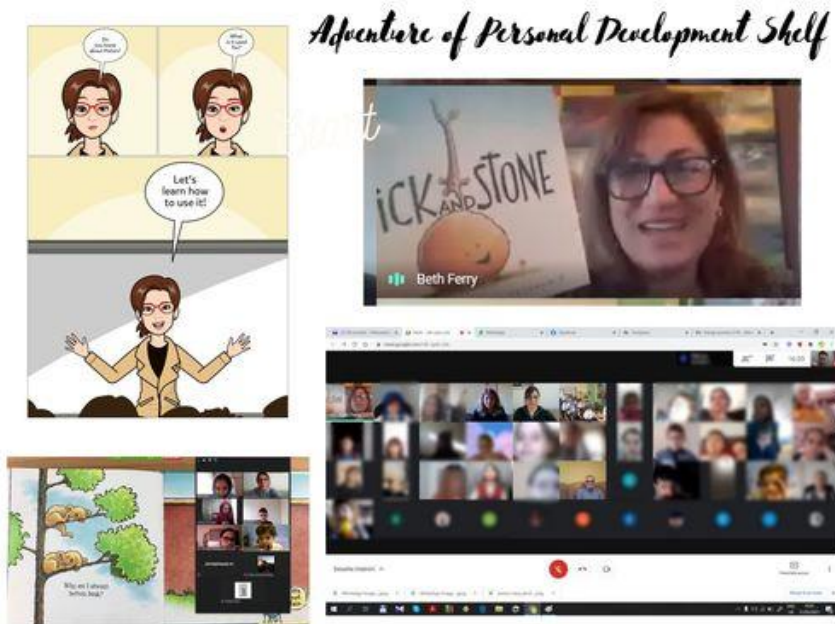

Students are allies in making necessary changes-encourages them to think and be more active

Students as agents of change

1

- Teachers and pupils collaborate from the planning of an activity to its actual implementation.

2

- The school involves pupils in the decision-making of school issues/project issues etc.

Erasmus+

Students as agents of change

3

- Pupils, who have participated in a project, are asked to present what they did in an open event at the school.

Erasmus+

4

- 4. Pupils are involved in the training of other teachers/pupils in using eTwining-ICT tools.

Students as agents of change

5

- 5. Pupils are involved in parents' meetings or in meetings with local authorities and promote eTwinning from the pupils' perspective

6

- 6. Pupils have opportunities to showcase their work in outside school events, such as educational fairs, competitions, etc.

Are Tech-savvy students a huge resource in providing high-tech knowledge to colleagues?

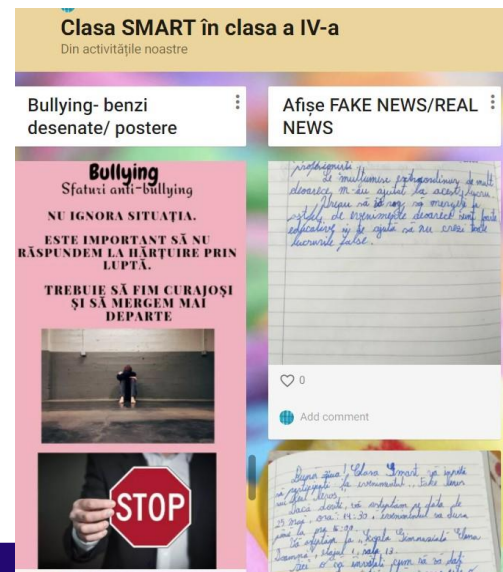

Using collaborative tools

Coding and programming

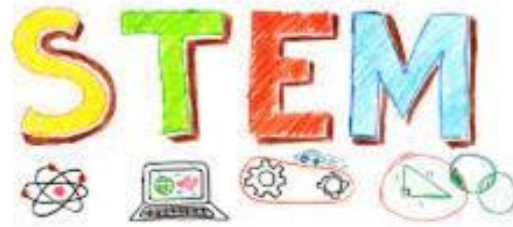

use, access, filter, evaluate, create, program and share digital content fakenews

How can students create a sustainable future from an ecological point of view through collaboration in eTwinning?

How can students improve their STEM skills?
